Stays

DOXFORD HALL
HOTEL AND SPA

Welcome to Dogs-ford Hall

We are paws-itively delighted that you have chosen to stay at Doxford Hall and hope that you have an enjoyable time with us.

Please find a special doggy welcome pack with a few essentials to use during your stay and some tasty treats for your travelling companion to nibble on.

Rest assured that you can expect the same high standards of service and quality in our pet-friendly rooms as you can throughout the hotel. We'll do all that we can to ensure everyone's creature comforts are more than satisfied so should you require anything during your stay please let us know by contacting Reception. You can come and speak to us directly or simply dial '0' from your bedroom telephone.

We politely request that you do not allow your dog to sit or lie on the furniture in the bedroom and that you wipe their feet on the towel provided to keep the room as clean as possible. For safety purposes we can only service our dog-friendly bedrooms when they are vacant. Please liaise with Reception and use the 'do not disturb' door hanger provided in your welcome pack to advise when Housekeeping can enter your room.

Your dog is welcome to join you in the Library; however, we are unable to allow dogs in any other lounge or in the Restaurant. Please always respect your fellow guests when in the public areas of the hotel by keeping your dog on a lead.

Thank you and Bon A-pet-treat!

Canine Concierge

If you find on arrival that you've perhaps travelled a little too light and have forgotten some of your doggy essentials, then fret not. At Reception we have a stock of dog poo bags, dog shampoo and deodoriser, spare leads and collars available to borrow. We also have a limited supply of dog brushes and tick removal tools for you to use should you need them.

You're welcome to borrow one of our torches for those early morning winter walks and inevitable pre-bedtime strolls. Please ask us to show you our hi-tech canine spa facilities, aka hosepipe and towel off area, which is located to the side of the property.

We request that you bring your own dog towels wherever possible, but do also have spares if you need to borrow one.

Northumberland Dog Walking

Shilbottle, Alnwick
01665 575658

Northumberland's much-loved coastline, dotted with iconic castles, pretty seaside villages, abundant wildlife and to-die-for views makes for some of the best coastal walking around. Whether you want to hot foot the entire length of the Northumberland Coastal Path or merely fit in a few circular walks during your stay, Doxford Hall offers a luxurious retreat from which to base yourself.

Situated down a quiet country lane and with ten acres of private gardens to roam you'll find ample space for a morning leg stretch from the hotel. There's a way-marked trail of approximately 0.5 miles through our gardens for an easy walk or head a little further afield and you'll find no shortage of fabulous dog friendly sandy beaches (30, in fact) with plenty to entertain you and your four-legged friend. We've picked some of our favourites:

Walkies...

Beadnell Beach, NE67 5BN

Golden sands running along a wide, horseshoe-shaped bay, backed by grassy dunes – just perfect for a bracing coastal walk with your dog at any time of year. Please note there are some seasonal restrictions in Beadnell Bay during bird breeding season when dogs must be kept on a lead or at heel. You'll find a pay-and-display car park on the outskirts of the village, with access to the beach via a slipway. There are also public toilets here and variety of shops in Beadnell itself.

Embleton Bay, NE66 3XQ

A natural beauty. Fine golden sand, big skies and with the ruins of Dunstanburgh Castle in view this beach doesn't disappoint. It was voted Best Beach in the UK by BBC Countryfile Magazine's readers. Park in the village of Low Newton, where you'll find a couple of shops and a pub and walk towards Craster for a decent leg stretch.

Seahouses, NE68 7SU

A vast stretch of sandy beach with low grassy dunes to one side and far reaching views to the Farne Islands on the other. Popular with dog walkers and wildlife spotters alike courtesy of the UK's largest colony of grey seals, puffins and other native sea birds seen from the Farne Islands. You'll find plenty of shops, eateries and other amenities in the town of Seahouses.

Craster Beach, NE66 3TR

Home to the famous smoked kippers, some lovely art galleries and the starting (or finishing) point for some fabulous coastal walks with your dog. You'll find a small, sandy beach within the harbour with shingle beaches on either side. Head north to Low Newton across National Trust land to the ruins of Dunstanburgh Castle, one of the most photographed sites in the county and named as one of the top ten walks in the whole of the UK. Toilets and a pay and display car park are located behind the Tourist Office.

Bamburgh Beach, NE69 7DF

A pristine, and often wind-swept, sandy beach with arguably the most iconic backdrop of all Northumberland's beaches: the majestic Bamburgh Castle. Sand dunes offering a diverse mix of flora and fauna, interesting rock pools and views out to the Inner Farne Islands: this beach has it all. But do wrap up warm whatever the season!

Alnmouth Beach, NE66 2RW

A wide, sandy beach that is seldom busy (and very often empty) where dogs are free to run, unrestricted, year-round. The village of Alnmouth offers a small selection of pubs and shops.
