

We are delighted that you are considering Doxford Hall & Spa for your forthcoming wedding celebrations.

At Doxford Hall, we are dedicated to creating a day that's tailored to your exact requirements, including all the little details that ensure your special day is as unique as you are.

Whether you'd like an intimate gathering with just a handful of your nearest and dearest or a grand celebration, we'll go all out to make sure that your perfect day is just that - your day.

Tivheless Elegance

TUCKED AWAY IN A QUIET CORNER OF NORTHUMBERLAND, NOT FAR FROM THE HISTORIC TOWN OF ALNWICK, DOXFORD HALL IS ONE OF THE COUNTY'S TRUE HIDDEN GEMS.

Built in 1818, this much-loved country house, the epitome of Georgian splendour, has been lovingly restored and includes a wealth of exquisite craftsmanship, including fine wood panelling and a grand, handmade staircase: the perfect marriage of old and new.

A sweeping driveway leads you up to the Hall through the ten acres of grounds. To the front are formal gardens beyond a sunny terrace, with classical stone features and wrought iron gateways giving rise to enchanting photo opportunities.

Beyond, discover pathways with wild flower planting and ancient trees, leading to the yew tree maze and a secret walled garden, with espaliered trees. There's an abundance of beautiful backdrops for your wedding photographs – and some quiet corners to enjoy time alone with your newlywed.

Where better to begin your new life together than at Doxford Hall?
